in his fourth edition of Éléments d'économie politique pure 1900 león walras introduced the device of written pledges to eliminate path dependency sellers of products and services write out commitments to supply certain quantities at suggested prices with no commodities actually produced and supplied until a set of prices is found at which supply and demand are equal simultaneously in every market this brought about very serious alterations to the character of the book unfortunately these changes resulted in an incomplete internally contradictory and occasionally incoherent text this translation therefore by two leading scholars of león walras work donald a walker and jan van daal revisits the third edition of this seminal work including walras brilliant explanation of his comprehensive model with all its richness derived from reality growing research into walras work indicates that it was this third edition that contained his best theoretical research and a translation of this edition of the book is now a necessity the second volume on christianity in china covers the period from 1800 to the present day dealing with the complexities of both catholic and protestant aspects
